All Railex Rolling Garment racks are manufactured from heavy duty steel components. Our bases all feature a fully welded construction. They don't break! Our rolling clothing racks are commercial quality. They stand up and last in the toughest environments. They are designed to be used every day and roll across uneven and rough surfaces. All our casters feature enclosed ball bearing design. Best of all we manufacture all our racks with pride in the USA. This means that if your business demands special features or dimensions on your rack we can make that for you.
